

POLICY STATEMENT

Where appropriate the company provides information on health promotion and disease prevention services as well as public health programs. In addition, our employees are made aware of local initiatives in this regard

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

Health Promotion – activities that actively promote better health

CROSS REFERENCES and other RESOURCE MATERIAL

Prepared by:	Department:	Authorised:	Review Cycle:	Issue Number:
D. Reid	Administration	Directors	Bi-Annual	01-07-2004
05-2004				Issue 1

1. Information on local health promotion and disease prevention programs are made available to employees.
2. A database and folder of local resources, programs and service is available to employees.
3. Employees have access to the Internet (at our office) so that they may avail themselves of any relevant information.
4. The company has strong established links with local medical practitioners and attends various meetings and receives newsletters related to health promotion. These are made available to employees.
5. Employees are actively encouraged to engage with clients in regard to preventative care and health promotion.
6. Where appropriate information on prevention is disseminated.